Application Review Process

Applications will be screened for compliance with minimum thresholds listed above. Applications meeting minimum thresholds will be forwarded to a review committee for evaluation. Applications not accepted will be returned by mail, with an explanatory note. Qualifying applications will be reviewed for:

- Value to the horse industry
- Size and scope of activity
- Financial need
- Quality of written presentation

The review committee may recommend a grant less than the requested amount. Grant recipients should be notified within 90 days of the deadline date.
