

THE MARYLAND NUTRIENT MANAGEMENT PROGRAM PRESENTS

“The Phosphorous Site Index, Part 2”

October 14, 2009 • Ellicott City
November 4, 2009 • Chestertown

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Phosphorous Site Index (PSI) for Maryland uses readily available information to evaluate factors that could contribute to P loss from agricultural land. This in-field session builds on the knowledge gained from the classroom session. Participants will use equipment and techniques they learned about in the classroom session.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Certified consultants and farmer/operators with little or no previous PSI experience. The field session will award 3 Maryland Nutrient Management continuing education credits.
